35 ORDER (1) RE DEFENDANTS' FAILURE
36 TO APPEAR THROUGH COUNSEL AND
37 (2) SETTING FURTHER CASE
38 MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

39 This court held a further case management conference on December 13, 2005. Juan M. Vega
40 purported to appear on behalf of the defendants. However, Mr. Vega is not an attorney, and 41 defendants Tacqueria Cancun and Gee Tee O, L.L.C. still have not yet retained counsel.

42 Defendants are again reminded that they may only appear in this action through an attorney
43 and cannot defend themselves in this lawsuit without one. See Civ. L.R. 3-9(b) ("A corporation, 44 unincorporated association, partnership or other such entity may appear only through a member of the 45 bar of this Court"); see also Rowland v. California Men's Colony, 506 U.S. 194, 201-02 (1993)
46 ("It has been the law for the better part of two centuries . . . that a corporation may appear in the 47 federal courts only through licensed counsel") and In the Matter of George C. Highley, 459 F.2d
48 554, 555 (9th Cir. 1972) ("A corporation can appear in a court proceeding only through an attorney
49

1 at law”).

2 Defendants are further reminded that they retain all of the obligations of a litigant,
3 and their failure to appoint an attorney may lead to an order striking their pleadings or entry
4 of their default. To date, defendants have yet to properly file an answer or other response to the 5 complaint. Indeed, if the parties are unable to informally resolve this matter, and defendants
6 fail to secure counsel to represent them, then this court may be obliged to enter a default
7 judgment against defendants – even if they believe that they have a meritorious defense.

8 The parties shall appear for a further case management conference on February 14, 2006,
9 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom 2. A joint status report shall be filed no later than February 7, 2006.
